

liamsport, who does not own a lot or lots in said town, on the day that the books are first opened. CHAP. 167.

15. And be it enacted, That any individual through whose land water is intended to be brought for the purposes aforesaid, may on the first day that the books aforesaid are opened, have the right of subscribing for stock to the amount of fifty shares, or to the whole or any part of the amount which he may be entitled to receive as a compensation for the privileges granted to the said company, any thing in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Individuals holding lands, through which water is brought, to have the right of subscribing amounting to, on first day.

CHAPTER 168.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to incorporate a Company to make a Turnpike Road from the Frederick and Baltimore Turnpike Road, commencing at the west end of Frederick-Town, to Harper's Ferry on the Potomac River.

Passed Feb 11 1818

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the fifteenth section of the act to which this is a supplement be and the same is hereby repealed,

Fifteenth section of act repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That so much of the proviso, contained in the seventh section of the said act, as exempts from toll militia-men on days of training, and voters on days of election, attending the polls, going to and returning from the same, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Proviso in seventh section repealed.

CHAPTER 169.

An act relating to Vagrants in the City of Baltimore.

Passed Feb 11 1818

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act, entitled, An act relating to vagrants in the city of Baltimore, passed at November session eighteen hundred and eleven, be and the same is hereby repealed, annulled, and made void.

Act repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled, An act relating to vagrants in the city of Baltimore, passed at November session eighteen hundred and four, be and the same is hereby revived and declared to be in full force and virtue in law, any thing in any statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act revived.

CHAPTER 170.

An act to regulate the manner of granting Licenses to Retailers of Spirituous Liquors and to prevent persons from dealing with Free Negroes after sun-set, in Kent county.

Passed Feb 9 1818

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the twentieth day of March next, it shall not be lawful for the judges of Kent county court, nor any of them, to grant a license to any person to retail spirituous liquors, strong beer or cider, in Kent county, unless the person applying for such license shall, at the time of his or her application, exhibit to the said court or judge the consent and approbation in writing of fifty of the free white male inhabitants of the said county, above the age of twenty-one years, who shall be residents in the election district of said county in which such applicant proposes to retail, and twenty of whom shall reside within eight miles of the said place, which consent shall express the name of the person to be licensed, and the place at which the applicant proposes to retail.

Judges not to grant license to retail spirituous liquors without person applying exhibits consent of 50 of the inhabitants, &c.