CHAP. XVI.

An Act for the appointment of a Trustee for Eliza Mathews, the Wife of Doctor William P. Mathews, of Baltimore County, and her Children.

Passed Dec 22

WHEREAS, it hath been represented to this general assembly, that Deborah Sterett, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, the mother of the said Eliza Mathews, did, by her last will and testament, devise and bequeath to certain trustees, a proportion of the proceeds of her real and personal estate, the annual interest whereof was directed to be paid to the said Eliza, during her life, and the principal on her decease to be equally divided among her children, and their legal representatives; that one of the said trustees hath renounced his trust, and refused to act, and the other trustee hath assigned away his property; and the said Eliza Mathews is desirous of having another trustee appointed in place of the last mentioned trustee: And whereas, also, it further appears, that the said Eliza Mathews, being desirous of making provision for herself and family, hath purchased an estate in Baltimore county situate on the Frederick and Baltimore turnpike road, for which she hath paid,
