Passed Feb 4, 1820
Preamble

WHEREAS the said William Morsell, junior, hath by his petition represented to this general assembly, that Elizabeth Hall, John Hall, Thomas Watkins, and Thomas Henry Hall, now deceased, executors of Henry Hall, were legally bound to convey to the person under whom he claims, part of a tract of land lying in Frederick county, called "Partnership;" that the said Elizabeth Hall, John Hall, Thomas Watkins, and Thomas Henry Hall, are all dead without making any conveyance of the said land, that an interest in law in said land hath descended to the legal representatives of the said Elizabeth Hall, John Hall, Thomas Watkins, and Thomas Henry Hall; that to get a specific performance and conveyance of the said land, it is necessary to file a bill in chancery against the legal representatives of the said Elizabeth Hall, John Hall, Thomas Watkins, and Thomas Henry Hall; that the said legal representatives of the persons aforesaid reside in the state of Maryland, but being unknown to him, and are so numerous and scattered into different parts of the said state, that he cannot discover their names or the places of their residence, and is without remedy according to the existing laws of this state; therefore,
