

CHAP. 162. said judge or justice, and upon the failure or neglect of such person or persons to comply with the regulations in such summons contained, the said judge or justice, upon proof of the service of such summons, or of its being left at the last place of abode of the person or persons on whom it should have been served, are hereby directed to deliver, upon the same being applied for, a statement, under his or their hands and seals, of the issuing of such summons, and the failure of compliance therewith; upon the delivery whereof to the clerk or register of the court where such confession of judgment was returned, the plaintiff or plaintiffs in the original judgment may have and use the same proceedings thereon, which might or could have been had if this act had never passed; Provided always, that if after the expiration of the time mentioned in the said summons, a confession of judgment as therein required shall be entered into, and a certificate thereof obtained, such certificate shall have the same force and operation as it would have had under this act, if no antecedent confession of judgment had ever been made; and the said confession of judgment shall be returned and recorded in the same manner, and under the same penalties, as are herein before prescribed.

P. ovise

Original judgment
may be suspended
a second time

6. And be it enacted, That in all and every case where the person or persons, against whom any judgment or decree hath heretofore been obtained have superseded the same in the manner prescribed by the original act to which this is a further supplement, it shall and may be lawful for such person or persons, against whom the original judgment or decree was obtained, or the survivor or survivors of them, to supersede the original judgment or decree in the manner pointed out by this act; and such confession shall operate as a stay of execution, as well upon the said original judgment, as upon the said former confession.

CHAP. CLXIII.

Passed Feb 12, 1820. An Act, entitled, An act supplementary to the act, entitled, An act to regulate Lotteries.

Managers of any scheme authorised by law selling the game; right to draw forfeited

1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the managers of any lottery authorised by any law of this state, shall sell any scheme of said lottery, the right to draw the said lottery shall be forfeited, and each of the managers who shall be concerned in the sale of the said lottery shall forfeit the sum of three thousand dollars, to be recovered in the county court of the county where the offence shall be committed, or in Baltimore city court if committed in the city of Baltimore, provided that this act shall not be construed to affect the consolidating lotteries according to the provisions of a supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate lotteries, passed at December session eighteen hundred and seventeen.

Penalty for selling
tickets not authorised by a
law of the state

2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person within this state, from and after the first day of April next, to have in possession any ticket, or part of any ticket of any lottery not granted or permitted by this state, with intent to sell, negotiate, or dispose of the same, or to sell, negotiate or advertise, in any way whatever, any such ticket or part of a ticket, or in any way or manner, or as agent, factor, broker or attorney, for or on behalf of any other person or persons, to aid, assist, or in any way to have any concern with any other person or persons in selling, disposing
