

CHAP. 38. Benjamin, William Matthews, junr. John Sumalt, and Robert Lyon, be and they are hereby appointed and substituted as a separate, independent board of commissioners of the school fund, for all that part of Baltimore county which is without the limits of the city of Baltimore, in lieu of the persons heretofore appointed, who reside in the county aforesaid, out of the said city of Baltimore, which commissioners herein named, shall have and receive all the powers and authorities vested in the commissioners for Baltimore county by the act to which this is a further supplement, and they may supply all vacancies happening in their board, so that the same shall always consist of at least fourteen members.

To call on treasurer annually for one moiety of school fund

2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby authorised and required, to call on for, and receive annually, from the treasurer of the western shore of Maryland, one moiety of the school fund, to which the said county is entitled, and which has not yet been paid over, and to receive from the former commissioners a moiety of the money by them received and not expended, which money when so received, the commissioners herein named, or who may hereafter be appointed, are hereby required to apply equally among the several election districts in said county, for the education of poor children, in any way or manner they may judge best calculated to promote the object of this law.

To render annual account to treasurer

3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid be and they are hereby directed, under the penalty of one hundred dollars, to render a full account annually to the treasurer of the western shore of all the monies so expended by them, under the provisions of this law.

To meet on first Monday of April

4. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid commissioners are authorised and directed to meet at the court house of Baltimore county on the first Monday of April next, and adjourn from time to time to any place in said county, where a majority of said commissioners shall think proper; and in case of death, resignation, disqualification, or removal out of the county, of one or more of the commissioners aforesaid, a majority of the remaining shall proceed to fill such vacancies, and there shall always be two commissioners in each election district of said county.

CHAP. XXXIX.

Passed Jan 8, 1821 An Act relating to certain Tobacco Inspection Warehouses in the City of Baltimore.

Preamble

WHEREAS heretofore, under an act of assembly passed at November session one thousand eight hundred and three, entitled, An act to authorise the levy court of Baltimore county to establish two additional warehouses in the city of Baltimore for the inspection of tobacco. John O'Donnell, late of the city of Baltimore, deceased, and Cumberland Dugan of the said city, did, under the permission and sanction thereof, build certain tobacco inspection warehouses, the said John O'Donnell on his wharf or ground on the lower end of the east side of Frederick-street or O'Donnell's Dock, and the said Cumberland Dugan on the lower end of the market space dock: And whereas, from the death of the said John O'Donnell, his warehouse aforesaid, and the ground attached thereto, have come by descent, and division of his estate among his heirs, to his sons Columbus O'Donnell and Elliott O'Donnell: And whereas, the said Columbus O'Donnell and El-
