CHAP. LXIX.

An Act to alter, change and repeal, all such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government of this State as relate to the Division of Queen-Anne's County into Election Districts.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Queen-Anne's county, that they experience great inconvenience for want of a fourth election district in said county, and praying an alteration in the first and second so as to admit a fourth district between; Therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of the constitution and form of government, made such by the act of seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, which directs that Queen-Anne's county shall be divided and laid off into three separate districts, be and the same is hereby repealed,

2. And be it enacted, That Queen-Anne's county shall be divided into four separate election districts, and that the additional districts shall be laid off adjoining and between the first and second districts,

3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly of Maryland after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, in such case this act, and the alterations herein contained, shall constitute and be considered a part of said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding,

CHAP. LXX.

An Act for the Relief of Otho Sprigg, of Frederick County.

passed Jan 20 1821

Benefit of insolvent laws extended to him

Proviso

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of Frederick county court be and they are hereby authorised and required, to extend to Otho Sprigg, of said county, upon his application, the benefit of the act of assembly, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, notwithstanding the deeds of conveyance to William Ross and Charles B. Ross, and to Charles B. Ross, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty, made and executed by the said Otho Sprigg, and recorded among the records of Frederick county; and it is the true intent and meaning of this act, that the execution of the said conveyances shall not be construed or understood to form a legal impediment to the said Otho Sprigg obtaining the benefit of the said act of assembly, and its supplements; Provided, the said Otho Sprigg shall comply with all the requisites of the said act of assembly, and its supplements, as if the said conveyances had not been executed, and shall convey to a trustee, to be appointed by the said court for the benefit of his creditors, any interest or benefit which may result to him from the said conveyances, and all his estate and property, of whatsoever nature or kind it may be, save such as is excepted by the acts of assembly above referred to; also that nothing herein contained shall be construed to give more effect to the deeds referred to than they now have by law or equity.
