

SAMUEL SPRIGG, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

1820

CHAP. LXXVI.

CHAP. 76.

A Further Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate a Company, to make a Turnpike Road from the Square in the Town of Boonsborough, in Washington County, to Swearingen's Ferry on the Potomac River. Passed Jan 23 1821

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the president and managers of said company be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to fill up any vacancy that may happen in said board of managers by death, resignation or removal, the said managers so chosen shall be empowered to do every and all such acts as though elected under the act to which this is a further supplement, until the period designated for the annual election of the same shall arrive. Vacancies may be filled

CHAP. LXXVII.

An Act for the Benefit of the Trustees of Garrison Forest Academy and the Franklin Academy in Baltimore County. Passed Jan 25 1821

WHEREAS by an act of assembly, entitled, An act for the promotion of literature in this state, passed November session one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, provision was made for endowing an academy for the accommodation of Baltimore and Harford counties, and the sum of eight hundred dollars was appropriated, to be paid annually out of the treasury of the state, for the benefit of the said Academy: And whereas the trustees appointed by the said act, neglected to avail themselves of the privileges thereof; but an academy was subsequently established in Harford county, to which there has been constantly paid the sum of five hundred dollars: And whereas, at December session one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, the trustees of Garrison Forest Academy were incorporated, and in eighteen hundred and twenty the trustees of Franklin Academy were incorporated, who have, at their own expense, erected suitable buildings, and for many years supported teachers in Garrison Forest Academy, without any aid from the legislature; and it being reasonable that Baltimore county should participate in the liberal donations of the state in behalf of Academies, Therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there be and hereby is appropriated the annual sum of eight hundred dollars, to be paid by the treasurer of the western shore to the trustees of Garrison Forest Academy, and the trustees of Franklin Academy, in Baltimore county, to be equally divided between them, or their order, for the benefit of said Academies. Preamble Appropriation for their benefit

CHAP. LXXVIII.

An Act for the relief of Catharine M. Kiernan, of Washington County. Passed Jan 25 1821

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the right and title which Francis M. Kiernan acquired by virtue of his marriage with Catharine M. Kiernan, of Washington county, to any property which she may become entitled to in any way or manner whatever, be and the same is hereby annulled and made void, and that the said Catharine M. Kiernan be and she is hereby declared capable to have, hold, take, receive, sue for and recover, by compromise, suit or suits in law or equity, all such property, in as full and ample a manner as if she were a feme sole, and had never been married, and to hold, use, and enjoy the Authorised to hold property, &c