CHAP. CXXXII.

An Act for the benefit of the Executors of Joseph Thornburgh, of Baltimore County. Passed Feb 7, 1821

WHEREAS James Ellicott and John M. Kean, of the city of Baltimore, were appointed by the orphans court of Baltimore county appraisers of the personal estate of Joseph Thornburgh of said county, deceased: And whereas a schedule of said personal estate, with the valuation thereto attached, was made out by said appraisers, and part of said personal estate disposed of by said executors, agreeably to the directions of the said Thornburgh; and the sudden and unexpected death of the said James Ellicott prevented him from signing said schedule and appraisal. Therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John M. Kean, of the city of Baltimore, and surviving appraiser of the personal estate of Joseph Thornburgh of Baltimore county, deceased, be and is hereby authorised and empowered, to sign and return the said schedule and valuation of the said personal estate to the said orphans court, and that the said schedule and valuation shall be to all intents and purposes as lawful and valid as if it had been signed by the said James Ellicott.
