Tavish, and all and every other child and children of the said John and Emily, hereafter to be born, shall be and hereby are enabled and rendered capable in law to take, hold, enjoy and transmit, by deed, descent or devise, an estate in fee simple, or any lesser interest or estate, in all and any and every part of the said lands, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as if the said John M. Tavish now were, and at the time of his marriage with the said Emily, and of the birth of the said Charles Carroll M. Tavish, or other child as aforesaid, had been or were a citizen of this state, or the United States.

CHAP. CLXVIII.

Passed Feb 14 1821 An Act to alter and change part of the Divisional Line between the Fourth and Fifth Election Districts in Anne-Arundel County.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by sundry voters of Anne-Arundel county, that a part of the road which at present makes the divisional line between the fourth and fifth election districts in said county, is little used as a public road, and is frequently changed by the owners of lands through which said road passes, and praying that said divisional line may be changed and made permanent; Therefore,

Division line

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That after the passage of this act the line dividing the fourth and fifth election districts in Anne-Arundel county, shall begin at the bridge across Patapsco Falls, near Ellicott's mills, and run with and bind on the Cumberland turnpike road from said bridge to the second turnpike gate on said road, now erected in Howard's lane, and from said turnpike gate, in Howard's lane, with the lane, as heretofore established by law, to the line of Prince George's county.

CHAP. CLXIX.

Passed Feb 14 1821 A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of Joseph S. Colgar, of Somerset County.

Preamble

WHEREAS by the act to which this act is a supplement, legislative relief was designed to be extended to Joseph S. Colgan, but by mistake the name of Joseph S. Colgar was inserted in said
