No. 5.

Passed Jan 29
— of the heirs
of John Neptune

RESOLVED, That the register of the land office for the western shore, be and he is hereby directed, to receive into his office the patent heretofore issued to William M. Mahon, of Allegany county, for a tract of land called "The Flowry Meads," bearing date the tenth day of September seventeen hundred and ninety six, containing two thousand and seventeen acres, one moiety of which land now belongs to the heirs of said John Neptune, deceased, the other part to sundry other persons; that in the certificate of the said patent there is an error in one of the lines which throws the whole tract into confusion; at the end of the hundred and forty-fourth line of said tract, the call is made to the end of the first line of lot No. 3794, whereas it ought to have been made to the end of the first line of lot No. 3719, which latter call, had it been made, would have gratified both course and distance as mentioned in the patent; and the other call takes the line directly the reverse of the course mentioned, and upwards of five hundred perches further than it ought to go, which error appears to have been committed by the then county surveyor in making out his certificate and return of the survey. All persons concerned in said land are desirous to have the error corrected, therefore the register of the land office for the western shore is directed to correct the record book in which the said patent hath been recorded, so as to correspond with the said patent when so amended; and the error therein corrected as aforesaid, and also to correct the certificate of the surveyor who made the survey of the land aforesaid; and also correct the record of said certificate so that it may correspond with the patent aforesaid as amended; and that the said heirs of John Neptune deceased, and all other persons owning any part of said tract of land, shall have the same right and title to the said land and premises, mentioned in the said patent so amended, as if the error had never been committed in the original certificate; Provided always, that the passage of this resolution shall not affect the title of any person or persons having acquired a just title to the land, or any part thereof, prior to the passage of this resolution.
