CHAPTER 47.

An act to alter a certain Road in Harford county.

Passed Jan. 14,

1822.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Harford County, that a bridge has been lately built across the River Susquehannah, a short distance below the Baldfriar Ferry, on said river, by which means the said ferry is entirely out of use, and the road leading thereto from the village of Dublin, and that a new road from said village to the bridge has been opened at the expense of private individuals, and prays that the said old road be vacated, and the new road aforesaid made and deemed a public high-way, and the same appearing reasonable—Therefore,

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the aforesaid old road leading from the village of Dublin, in Harford county, to the Baldfriar Ferry, be, and the same is hereby declared to be vacated, and that the new road leading from Dublin, to the Susquehannah Bridge, at the Connowingo Falls, be, and the same is hereby declared to be a public high-way, and that the same shall hereafter be kept in repair as other public roads in said county are kept in repair.

Road vacated—new road a public high-way.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the present supervisor appointed by the levy court of Harford county, to superintend or keep in repair the aforesaid old road, be, and the same is hereby appointed to superintend the aforesaid new road, until a new appointment shall be made by the said levy court, and that all such monies as may be in his hands unexpended (if any) be laid out on the new road.

Repairs.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall and may be lawful for the said supervisor, to make any alteration that he may think necessary in the location of the said new road; Provided, The same be done with the consent of the landholders, and at the proper cost and expense of private individuals that may volunteer to do the same.

Alteration.
