CHAPTER 76.

Passed Dec. 20, 1821. A further additional supplement to an act entitled, An act to incorporate a company for erecting a Bridge over Chester River at Chester-Town.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen whether the lottery authorised by the several supplements to the act to which this is an additional supplement, can be drawn except in the order of time prescribed by the act entitled, "An act to regulate lotteries;" and it is represented to this general assembly that the said bridge has been actually erected by the contribution of individuals in the belief that the said lottery would be drawn to reimburse them in part for their contributions—Therefore,

Lottery may be drawn.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the lottery authorised by the several supplements to the act entitled, "An act to incorporate a company for erecting a bridge over Chester River at Chester-Town," may be drawn at any time hereafter, and that the provisions of the act entitled, "An act to regulate lotteries," or the supplements thereto, so far as the same shall relate to the time or order in which lotteries are thereby directed to be drawn, shall not extend to or affect the said lottery: Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this act shall be construed to alter or in any manner to impair any of the terms or conditions on which the said lottery is authorised to be drawn, and which are prescribed in the said several supplements to the act to which this is an additional supplement.

Proviso.

Under whose management.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said lottery shall and may be drawn under the direction and superintendance of the commissioners of lotteries, and that the commissioners or managers, before
