CHAPTER 79.

Passed Jan. 22, 1822.

An act to authorise Christian Kemp, (as guardian of Virginia Baker and Corbin Baker,) of Frederick county, to remove into this state from the state of Virginia, certain negroes therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this general assembly by the petition of Christian Kemp, of Frederick county, (the guardian of Virginia Baker and Corbin Baker,) that a part of the property belonging to his said wards, consists of three negroes, to wit: Josiah, aged about twenty-one years; Beckey, aged about sixteen, and Sam, aged about fourteen years, the said negroes now being in Jefferson county, in Virginia; that he is desirous a law may pass to enable him, as the guardian of the said Virginia and Corbin Baker, to bring the said negroes from Virginia into this state as the property of his said wards—Therefore,

May import slaves.

BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Christian Kemp, as guardian to Virginia Baker and Corbin Baker, to remove from the state of
