

Dec. Ses. 1821. the commissioners shall be competent to discharge all and singular the duties imposed by this act.

CHAPTER 128.

Passed Jan 25, 1822. A supplement to an act entitled, An act to establish a bank in the city of Baltimore, to be called the City Bank of Baltimore.

Cashier may be dispensed with. SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement, that requires the directors of the City Bank of Baltimore to appoint a cashier, is hereby repealed, and the directors of said bank are hereby authorized and empowered to dispense with the services of a cashier when they shall deem it advisable, and to appoint in lieu of said cashier, such officers or clerks as they may from time to time think necessary for the winding up the concerns of said bank; and to require from the said officers and clerks, such sort of security as the said directors in their discretion may think proper.

Directors.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That so much of said law that prohibits a director of any other bank, or any other person who is a partner in trade with a director of any bank, from acting as a director in the City Bank of Baltimore, is hereby repealed, and it shall and may hereafter be lawful for any person to act as a director of the same, although he may be a director of another bank, or a person who is a partner in trade with a director of any other bank; any law of the state of Maryland, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Notice of elections of directors.

3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That so much of said law which requires the president and directors and company of the City Bank of Baltimore, to give six weeks notice in two or more newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore, one in Annapolis, one in George-Town, one in Frederick-Town, one in Hager's-Town, and one in Easton, of the time and place of holding the election of directors, is hereby repealed; and it shall hereafter be sufficient to give notice in one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, and one in Easton, three weeks previous to the election of the directors annually.

CHAPTER 129.

Passed Jan. 26, 1822. A supplement to the act entitled, An act to incorporate the Stock-holders of the Marine Bank of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, By the act to which this is a supplement, the location of the Marine Bank is confined to that part of the city of Baltimore called Fell's Point, and it is represented that the same is inconvenient and injurious to the interest of the stock-holders—Therefore,

Bank may be removed.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the president and directors of the Marine Bank of Baltimore, or a majority of them, to remove the said bank from that part of the city of Baltimore called Fell's Point, to any other part of the said city which they in their discretion shall deem advantageous to the stock-holders, and convenient for the transaction of the business of the corporation; and to purchase or erect a banking house, or such other building as shall be requisite for the accommodation of the said president and directors and the transaction of the business of the said corporation.
