

CHAPTER 212.

An act for the relief of William Coleman, of Montgomery county, and Edward H. C. Wilson, of Somerset county.

Dec. Ses. 1821.
Passed Feb. 22,
1822.
Preamble.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to this general assembly, by the petition of William Coleman, of Montgomery county, that he owns lands in Loudon county in the state of Virginia, and in Montgomery county in Maryland, which he cultivates; that it frequently becomes necessary for him to remove his negroes from his lands in Maryland to Virginia for the purpose of cultivating them; and as doubts exist whether negroes so removed, if they remain out of the state more than twelve months at any one time, are not entitled to their freedom—Therefore,

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for William Coleman, of Montgomery county, and Edward H. C. Wilson of Somerset county, to remove any slaves they now own, into and out of this state from and to the state of Virginia, as often as it may become necessary in their opinion for the cultivation of their lands in the two states.

May import slaves.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That no such removal of the slaves of the said William Coleman and said Wilson, shall be construed to entitle them or either of them to freedom: Provided, they make a list of the names and ages of the slaves intended to be so removed, setting forth the object of the removal of said slaves, and cause the same to be recorded in the clerk's office of their respective counties before any such removal is made.

Not to be free.
Proviso.
