

Dec. Sess. 1822

Passed Jan.
25, 1823
Repeal.

CHAPTER 107.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act concerning the Chancery Court.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement, passed at the last session, which requires the chief judge of the third judicial district to act in the recess of the court or out of court, in cases in which the chancellor may have been counsel, or have given his opinion, and on that account may conceive that he cannot conscientiously act thereon, and shall so certify in writing to the said chief judge, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 108.

Passed Jan. 31, 1823. An act for the benefit of Mary Chapman, administratrix of Henry H. Chapman.

Authorised.

*Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Mary Chapman, who hath obtained from the orphans courts of the county of Washington, in the District of Columbia, and of Charles county, in this state, letters of administration on the personal estate of her deceased husband, Henry H. Chapman, be, and she is hereby authorised and empowered to settle and pass, in the orphans court of the county of Washington, in the district of Columbia, all such accounts touching the personal estate of the said Henry H. Chapman, as she is now bound by law to pass and settle in the orphans court of Charles county; and the said accounts when passed as aforesaid, shall have the same effect and credit in this state, as if passed in the orphans court of Charles county; and it shall not be necessary for her to settle and pass any other or further accounts, or make any other returns to the said orphans court of Charles county; but all such accounts and returns may henceforward be made to, and passed by the orphans court of the county of Washington, in the District of Columbia: Provided, that if there is now in the hands of the said administratrix any property belonging to the said estate, an inventory of which she ought to have returned to the orphans' court of Charles county, or if any such property should hereafter come to her hands, she shall be as much bound to return an inventory of the same to the orphans court of Charles county, as she would have been if this law had not passed.*

Proviso.

CHAPTER 109.

Passed Jan. 1823. An act to ascertain and establish the divisional line between Anne-Arundel and Calvert counties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the line of division between Anne-Arundel and Calvert counties, is not well ascertained, by reason whereof inconveniences have arisen; therefore,

Commissioners,
powers,
&c.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for fixing and ascertaining the said divisional line the following persons be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to act as commissioners, viz. for Anne-Arundel county, Virgil Maxey and James Tongue, for Calvert county, Thomas H. Wilkinson and Richard Ireland, and for Baltimore county, Doct. William Howard, which said commissioners or a major part of them, shall be, and they are hereby authorised and required, to meet at some place to be agreed on by themselves, near the borders of said counties, and call before them, by summons to be issued by them, and directed to the sheriff of the county, all persons who may be deemed proper to give