CHAPTER 110.

An act relating to Chester Parish in Kent county.

WHEREAS, the vestry of Chester parish in Kent county, have represented that for several years past, the vestry of said parish have been elected at the chapel in Chester Town, instead of the parish church at J. U. and they are apprehensive that some difficulty in relation to their proceedings may hereafter occur in consequence of the elections being held as aforesaid; that the said parish church is in a dilapidated and ruinous condition; that the chapel is in good repair and is the only place in the parish where a regular Episcopal congregation now convenes; and the said vestry having prayed that a law might pass confirming the acts and proceedings of the vestry of the said parish, and authorising the elections hereafter to be held at the chapel in Chester Town; therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the acts, proceedings and doings of the vestry of Chester parish in Kent county, their officers or agents, heretofore had, made or done,
