

Dec. Ses. 1822

Authority over paupers, &c.

5. And be it enacted, That every pauper who shall be under the care of the said trustees, except females under the age of twelve years, and males under the age of fifteen, shall be charged as a debtor for food, medicine and other necessaries furnished, at a rate not exceeding thirty cents per day; and every such pauper, when capable of performing labor, or service, may, in the discretion of the trustees, be required and compelled to perform the same, and shall be allowed a reasonable compensation therefor, according to the value thereof, to be ascertained and fixed by the said trustees, and credited to the account of such pauper performing such work, labor, or services; and the said trustees may retain such pauper under their care until the amount of compensation so allowed shall be equal to the amount of charges against such pauper aforesaid; and if any pauper shall depart from the poorhouse or workhouse, without the permission of the said trustees, before such pauper shall have compensated by work, labor, or services as aforesaid, or otherwise, for the charges made as herein before directed, such pauper, so departing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof in the Baltimore city court, to which cognizance of the same is hereby given, shall be sentenced to work and labor under the direction of "the trustees for the poor of Baltimore city and county" aforesaid, for a period of time, in the discretion of the said court, not exceeding twelve months; and a certificate under the corporate seal of the said trustees, that any person has so departed, indebted and without permission, shall be sufficient evidence to authorize any judge or justice of the peace to issue a warrant for the arrest of such person, and to bind over or commit such person for trial before the proper court, as in other cases of misdemeanor: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent or restrict the said trustees from dismissing any pauper or other person from under their care, without requiring any compensation to be made by labor, or otherwise, for the expenses charged against such person.
