CHAPTER 194.

An act for the benefit of William H. Murray and Maria, his wife.

Passed Feb.
7, 1823.
Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of William H. Murray, of the city of Baltimore, and Maria, his wife, lately Maria Sterling, a daughter and one of the devisees of James Sterling, late of said city, deceased, that a large portion of the deceased's improved and most productive property has been set apart by his executors to meet certain payments provided for, in and by the testator's will, that the residue of his real estate, has been divided amongst his devisees, by commissioners appointed by Baltimore county court, for that purpose, and that the principal part of that portion of said estate, which, in and by the said division, was allotted to the said Maria Murray, consists of lands in the suburbs of, and unimproved lots within the city, which description of property is at present more a source of expense than of profit, considering its unproductiveness and the heavy taxes thereon: that the said Maria is now nineteen years old, and the interests of the petitioners would be greatly promoted if they were enabled to lease and let out, for long terms, the whole or parts of the real estate; so as aforesaid allotted to the said Maria, in the division of the estate of her late father; wherefore the petitioners prayed that a law might
