CHAPTER 103.

An act for the relief of Isaac Lyon, of Frederick county.

Passed Feb. 3, 1824.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly by the petition of Isaac Lyon, that in the year eighteen hundred and twelve he obtained the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, and that in the year eighteen hundred and twenty he was, by the pressure of misfortune, obliged to apply the second time for similar relief, and at the time he had obtained the assent in writing in due form of law of more than two-thirds in value of his creditors, but could not be released, the law then required in such cases that fifty per cent should be paid: And whereas, it is further represented by the petition of the said Isaac Lyon that the papers containing the evidence of the assent of his creditors were filed in the clerk's office of Frederick county and have been lost, and that the want of them is at this time the only obstacle to his obtaining a discharge—Therefore,

Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of Frederick county court be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to extend to Isaac Lyon, of Frederick county, the benefit of an act of assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the acts supplementary thereto: Provided, that the said Isaac Lyon shall prove to the satisfaction of the said judges that he had obtained the assent of his creditors as above recited, and shall procure the assent according to law of two-thirds in value of all creditors to whom he has become indebted since his said application in the year eighteen hundred and twenty: and provided also, the said Isaac Lyon shall comply with all the other necessary requisites of the said acts of assembly.

Insolvency.
