

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That at the present session, and at every succeeding session of the General Assembly, one director shall be appointed by joint ballot on the part of the state to manage its concerns in said company by the legislature.

Dec. Ses. 1823
State director.

2. And be it enacted, That the director appointed shall have full power and authority to vote at the election of directors as other stockholders have, and to attend the meeting of the directors of the said company, and as such have all the rights, privileges and powers of any director.

His powers.

CHAPTER 143.

An act for the support of an orphan child of Maria Quinlan, late of Harford County.

Passed Feb. 17, 1824.
Levy $30.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Harford County be, and they are hereby authorised at their next levy court, and annually thereafter, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county a sum of money not exceeding thirty dollars, for the support and maintenance of an orphan child of Maria Quinlan, late of said county, to commence from the death of the mother, so long as they shall see cause, and that the same be annually collected and paid over to John Grendall, or such person as the court may think proper.

CHAPTER 144.

A further supplement to the act, entitled, an act to establish a Bank, and incorporate a company under the name of the Cumberland Bank of Allegany.

Passed Feb. 14, 1824.
Three Commissioners.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That instead of eight directors and a president to manage the affairs of the said bank, as authorised in the law to which this is a further supplement, three commissioners herein after named and appointed, shall have full power and authority to conduct and manage the affairs of the said bank for the purpose of settling and closing the concerns thereof.

2. And be it enacted, That Frederick A. Schley, Bene S. Pigman and Abraham Schriver, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose aforesaid, and all the power and authority heretofore possessed by the president, directors and company of said bank shall be, and is hereby vested in said commissioners, and that instead of a cashier and other officers, the said commissioners shall have full power and authority to appoint such agents, clerks, and attornies, and the same to remove at pleasure as they may deem necessary in the discharge of the duty hereby assigned them, and that it shall be the duty of the said agents, clerks and attornies, to give all due and proper attention to the business confided to them by said commissioners in virtue of this act, and that to which this is a further supplement, and the said commissioners shall have full power and authority to defray all necessary expenses, and make compensation out of the funds of said bank to the agents, clerks and attornies, that they may employ as aforesaid as to them shall appear reasonable and proper.

Commissioners and their duties.

3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners in the performance of the trust hereby conferred upon them shall always have due regard to the interest of the debtors, creditors and stockholders, and shall have full power and authority to call upon the president, directors, cashier or other officers or agents of said bank, or any of them

Proceedings.