3. And be it enacted, That in case a majority of the directors do not attend on that day, those attending may, if they deem it necessary appoint another day in the said month for the election, giving such notice as they may think necessary, and the election on the day they may so appoint shall be as effectual as if it had been held on the first Monday in June.

Repealed.

4. And be it enacted, That the eighth section of the act to which this a supplement be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 167.

Passed Feb. 23, 1824. Preamble.

An act for the benefit of the infant children of Ann Maria Campbell, of Dorchester County.

WHEREAS, it is represented by the petition of Doctor Joseph E. Muse, of Dorchester County, as next friend to Levisa Campbell, Ann Maria Campbell, and Levin H. Campbell, infant children of Ann Maria Campbell, late of the said county—that the said Ann Maria Campbell, died, seized of real estate in the said county, to wit: a House and Lot in Cambridge, about sixty acres of poor land on the east side of Cambridge Creek, unimproved, and unfit to rent, and a few acres of wood land near Cambridge; that the taxes, repairs and numerous disbursements, as well as the decaying condition of this property, and the very limited income of the children, make it a matter of great interest to them to be enabled to convert it into money;—Therefore, Sale authorised.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Doctor Joseph E. Muse, be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to sell and dispose of all the real estate of which Ann Maria Campbell, of Dorchester County, died, seized and possessed, and which now belongs to the infant children of said Ann Maria Campbell, on such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by the Orphans' Court of the County aforesaid.
