No. 50.

Whereas, it is a matter of great importance to the people of this state, that the decisions of the court of appeals should be reported, in order that those rules and legal obligations, to which the citizen is bound may be known and understood by him; and the publishers of the Maryland reports having been deterred from a further prosecution of their work by the expenses of the publication, and the limited sale of the same. And whereas, the court of appeals have of late years reduced their opinions to writing thereby rendering clear of all doubt and ambiguity, those principles which regulate and protect the lives, liberty and property of the people, and it being ascertained that the said decisions cannot be reported and published by individuals without the aid of the legislature— therefore,

Passed Jan. 31, 1824.
Preamble.

Resolved, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the governor and council, be and they are hereby authorised and required to contract with any Executive to contract for 200 copies of reports.
