CHAPTER 15.

An act to authorise John L. Jaques to cut a canal therein mentioned in Dorchester County.

Passed Jan 10, 1825.

WHEREAS, John L. Jaques of Dorchester county, has petitioned the general assembly of Maryland for a law to enable him to cut a canal between the waters of Fishing bay and Nanticoke river in Dorchester county; Therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John L. Jaques, be, and he is hereby authorised to excavate, cut, and make a canal from the head waters of Poco creek emptying into Fishing bay to the head waters of Jack's creek, running into Nanticoke river in Dorchester county, of such width and depth as shall be in the opinion of said petitioner most conducive to the object he has in view.

Authorised to cut.

2. And be it enacted, That the said John L. Jaques shall cause the dirt coming out of the proposed canal in excavating the same to be thrown equally on both banks or sides of said canal so as to prevent the water from rising and overflowing the marshes and lands through which the said canal shall pass; and shall also cause a good and sufficient bridge to be constructed over said canal, where the road from Hurley's neck leading to Nanticoke point neck shall cross the same, and always keep said bridge in good order and repair for the accomodation of those travelling on said road.

Directions given.

3. And be it enacted, That the said John L. Jaques shall be, and he is hereby vested with the exclusive and sole right of using said canal, and that it shall not be lawful for any person to use said canal without the permission of said John L. Jacques or impede him in the full enjoyment and use of it.

Sole property vested.

4. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to authorise said John L. Jaques to make and cut said canal unless he shall previously get the consent of the proprietors of the marshes or lands through which the said canal shall pass.

Consent of proprietors.
