

sioned, by the death, resignation or removal out of the county, of any member of the said board, shall not be supplied, until the number of the board shall be reduced to eighteen, the number prescribed by the original act of incorporation, passed at November session, 1779.

Dec. Ses 1824

2. And be it enacted, That when the number of the aforesaid board, shall have been so reduced as aforesaid, it shall consist of eighteen members and no more.

Number of trustees.

3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be previously accepted by the present trustees, and their acceptance thereof, entered on the journals or minutes of proceedings, at their next regular meeting; then the same shall commence and be in full force.

Acceptance of trustees required.

CHAPTER 59.

An act requiring the judges of the County Courts of the fourth judicial district of this state, to set apart certain days for the transaction of chancery business in said courts.

Passed Jan. 21, 1825.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of June next, it shall be the duty of the judges of the fourth judicial district of this state, and they are hereby required to set apart the two first days of each and every term of the said county courts thereafter, for the hearing and deciding of causes on the chancery side of said county courts, and all subpoenas for witnesses, shall be made returnable on the third day of the respective terms of the said county courts; and all jurors summoned to attend said courts, shall be directed to appear on the third day of the respective terms of said courts; provided, that nothing in this act contained, shall be construed to prevent the said county courts from exercising chancery jurisdiction on any other day or days of the respective terms of said county courts, as they are now authorised to exercise the same.

Days set apart—subpoenas.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 60.

An act for the benefit of the trustees of Saint Lucas Reformed Church in Union Town, Frederick county.

Passed Jan. 24, 1824.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jacob Appler, senior, Joseph Greenwood and Philip Hiteshow, trustees of Saint Lucas Reformed Church in Union Town, or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of by public or private sale, Saint Lucas Reformed Church in Union Town, together with so much of the land thereto belonging, as is now separated, excluded and detached from that part forming the burying ground, by a post and rail fence; and they or a majority of them are hereby also empowered to convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers in fee simple; and the proceeds of the sale of the said church and land, the said trustees, or a majority of them shall appropriate as follows, viz: First to pay and satisfy all monies yet unpaid and owing by the said trustees, or either of them, or any other person on account of the building of said church; and secondly, to repay and retain the amount of all monies already paid and advanced by the said trustees, or either of them on account of the building the said church; and the balance, if any, to pay over to the contributors to the building of said church, in proportion to the amount of their subscriptions.

Sale authorized—money applied.