CHAPTER 67.

An act to repeal an act entitled, An Act to alter, change and repeal such parts of the constitution and form of government of this state, as relate to the division of Allegany county, into eight separate election districts, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and sixteen, and confirmed at December Session, eighteen hundred and seventeen.

Passed Jan. 26, 1825.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all such parts of the constitution and form of government, made such by the acts of eighteen hundred and sixteen and eighteen hundred and seventeen, which directs that Allegany county shall be divided and laid off into eight separate election districts, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Act of 1816 repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That Allegany county shall be divided into nine separate election districts; and the additional district shall be taken and laid off from the seventh and eighth election districts, as they are now numbered.

Nine districts.

3. And be it enacted, That Amos Robinett, Francis Reid, Benjamin Robinson, John North and Leonard Shereliff, or a majority of them, or a majority of the survivors of them, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and authorized to lay off Allegany county into nine separate election districts; and to number the same, not altering or changing either the first, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth election districts; or the place of holding the election therein as now established by law, but only dividing the seventh and eighth into three separate election districts, having regard to the population, extent and convenience of the votes in each of said districts; and said election districts so laid off anew, shall be numbered seven, eight and nine, and known thereafter by such number; and also to select Old Town as the place of holding the election for one of the said election districts thus to be laid out, the house of Isaac Osmon, near the mouth of Fifteen mile creek, for the place of holding the election of another election district thus laid out; and Walter Slicer's tavern, or any other place within said district, which may be deemed more convenient, for the place of holding the election in the other election district thus to be laid out; and the said commissioners shall, on or before the first day of April, eighteen hundred and twenty-six, deliver to the clerk of Allegany

Commissioners to divide, &c
