

which the toll gate on said Hunting Ridge Turnpike Road, may or can be avoided or evaded, except roads condemned as public roads by law, and used as such.

Dec Ses 1824

CHAPTER 87.

An act relating to the trustees of the poor and judges of the orphans courts of the several counties in this State.

Passed Feb. 4, 1825.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the trustees of the poor of the several counties in this state, or any three of them, to bind out any negro or mulatto child or children under their care in the poor house of said counties, as they are now authorised by law to bind out, without requiring that such education shall be given to the said child or children as masters are obliged to give to apprentices bound by the several orphans courts of this state.

Authority given to trustees of the poor.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the several orphans courts in this state to bind out any free negro or mulatto child or children that may come or be brought before them to be bound out, in the same manner and with the same provisions as are required by the first section of this act, in the case of children bound out by the trustees of the poor.

To orphans court.

CHAPTER 88.

An act to authorise the orphans court of Frederick county to open and review the account of the executors of Philip Juda, late of Frederick county deceased, and to correct any error which may have been made in the settlement of the said account.

Passed Feb. 4, 1825.

Whereas, it has been represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Thomas Oare and Mary his wife, that Philip Juda, late of Frederick county, in the state of Maryland, deceased, did by his last will and testament, bearing date the first day of January, eighteen hundred and three, among other bequests, give to the poor of the county the sum of one hundred pounds current money, to be paid at the discretion of the executors named in said will, and it having been also represented to this general assembly, that the executors named in the said will have never distributed the said bequest of one hundred pounds current money, as directed by the said testator, but have received a credit in their settlement with the orphans court of Frederick county for that amount; Therefore,

Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the orphans court of Frederick county be, and they are hereby authorised to open and review the account and settlement made with the said court by the executors of Philip Juda, late of said county, deceased; and if the said court shall be satisfied that the said executors are improperly credited with the sum of one hundred pounds current money, then, and in that case they shall strike the said sum of one hundred pounds from the credit side of said settlement, and charge the executors aforesaid with the same, as so much assets in their hands, to be disposed of agreeably to law.

Directed to review, &c

CHAPTER 89.

An act to prevent geese and swine from going at large in the village of Denton, in Caroline county.

Passed Feb. 7, 1825.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the last section of the act of eighteen hundred and twen-

Repeal of former act.