

4. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall neglect to take out license or licenses as required by this act, and the act to which this is a further supplement at the time therein specified, or within three days after the meeting of the first county court of the county where such person or persons reside, after the first day of August in each and every year, such person or persons may and shall be proceeded against in the manner provided by the act to which this is a further supplement; and there shall not any licenses be granted to wholesale merchants or retailers for a shorter period than one year.

Dec Ses 1824

Persons neglecting License for one year.

5. And be it enacted, That when any wholesale merchant or retailer is prosecuted under the provisions of this act or the act to which this is a further supplement, it shall not be necessary for the attorney prosecuting for the state, to prove that the goods, wares or merchandise sold by such wholesale merchant or retailer were of foreign growth or manufacture, but they shall be so considered unless the contrary is proved by the defendant, in such prosecution.

Proof of foreign growth.

6. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the act to which this is a further supplement, which contravene the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed, provided that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to release any persons who may have neglected to take out licenses as required by the act to which this is a further supplement, from the payment of the amount required, or from the penalties and forfeitures prescribed by the said act.

Repeal.

7. And be it enacted, That the county clerks of each county shall furnish the grand jury at each term of their respective courts with a list of all such persons as obtain a license under this act or the act to which this is a further supplement, and the clerk of Baltimore county shall also furnish the city court of Baltimore with a list of such persons at every term of the said court.

Clerks of courts to furnish lists to juries.

CHAPTER 159.

An act to provide a revenue for the support of the government of this State.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy-courts of the several counties in this state, are hereby authorised and required to levy on the assessable property within their respective counties, clear of the expenses of collection, severally as follows; On Saint Mary's county, the sum of one thousand one hundred and twenty four dollars; on Kent county, the sum of one thousand one hundred and ninety nine dollars thirty three cents and one third of a cent; on Anne Arundel county, the sum of two thousand seven hundred and ninety dollars; on Calvert county, the sum of six hundred and eighty five dollars thirty three cents and one third of a cent; on Charles county, the sum of one thousand nine hundred and seventeen dollars thirty three cents and one third of a cent; on Baltimore county, the sum of ten thousand two hundred and six dollars; on Talbot county, the sum of one thousand one hundred and seventy seven dollars thirty three cents and one third of a cent; on Somerset county, the sum of one thousand five hundred and seventy six dollars; on Dorchester county, the sum of one thousand five hundred and sixty seven dollars thirty three cents and one third of a cent; on Cecil county, the sum of one thousand six hundred and ninety two dollars sixty six cents

Passed Feb 24, 1825. Levies—additional bonds