

Dec. Ses 1824

stockholders according to their respective interests in the stock of said bank, and to cause the same to be immediately paid over to the said stockholders or their legal representatives.

How estimated.

15. And be it enacted, That the amount which may be due each and every stockholder on account of the capital stock, shall be considered the original amount of each stockholders part of the said capital stock, deducting therefrom all such dividends as have been made, or hereafter may be made by the said president and directors since the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty one inclusive, to the time of determining to close the concerns of said bank, agreeably to the provisions of this act.

Par value regulated.

16. And be it enacted, That the par value of every debt due the said bank shall be considered the full amount of principal, interest and costs, (if any have accrued,) that may be due when ascertaining the par value of any such debt.

Case of not consenting to close.

17. And be it enacted, That if the general meeting to be called agreeably to the provisions of this act, shall determine against giving the advice and consent of the stockholders, to close the concerns of said bank in the manner provided for by this act, such determination shall not be construed to affect the power vested in the said president and directors by the first and second sections of this act.

CHAPTER 164.

An act supplementary to an act entitled, An act for the better regulation of the Militia of the City of Baltimore.

Passed. Feb.
24, 1825
Mistress of house exempt.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no mistress of any dwelling house, other than a boarding house, shall be fined or imprisoned for refusing to give information to the enrolling officer, concerning any person or persons liable to be enrolled by virtue of the original act of which this is a supplement, any thing in the said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Parades.

2. And be it enacted, That the division parade heretofore held on the twelfth day of September in each and every year by virtue of the act of which this is a supplement, be hereafter held on the second Monday in October, and that the third parade heretofore established as a company parade of each company be considered a regimental and inspection parade, and that the fifth parade heretofore established by the said act, be and the same is hereby abolished; and the said division parade shall be at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and the regimental and company parades at two o'clock in the afternoon, as nearly as practicable, in each year, at such places as the respective commanding officers may appoint, unless they are postponed as authorized by the act to which this is a supplement.

Fine for non-attendance.

3. And be it enacted, That if any non commissioned officer, private or musician, whose duty it shall be to attend, shall refuse or neglect to attend any of the meetings directed by the original act or by this supplement, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than fifty cents, nor more than two dollars, to be fixed and ascertained by the court of appeals in all cases whether the said delinquent shall appear before the said court or not, unless he can give a reasonable