CHAPTER 165.

Passed Feb. 25, 1825.

An act to appoint commissioners to review the ninth and part of the tenth election districts in Baltimore county, and establish a proper place for holding the election.

Preamble.

Whereas, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of said county, that the place of holding the election in the ninth election district, is not central and convenient, and the prayer of the petitioner appearing reasonable; Therefore,

Commissioners to review. Proceedings directed.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Nathaniel Childs, William Hoofman, Charles Jessep Senior, Richard McGaw and Walter Perdue, shall be, and they are hereby appointed and authorised, or a majority of them, to review the ninth and the upper end of the tenth election districts in said county, and make such alterations and changes in the present location of said districts, as may most conduce to the general convenience of the people, by attaching that part of the upper end of the tenth election district, intended by this act to be reviewed, to the ninth district, or by lopping off that part of the ninth district aforesaid, which formerly composed a part of the third election district in said county (and now called the third collection district) and attaching the same to the sixth election district in said county; and to appoint a place to hold all future elections at the ninth district as nearly central as shall be practicable, having regard to population, extent and the convenience of voters, and the accommodation of persons attendant on such elections; and the said commissioners shall on or before the first day of August next, deliver to the clerk of Baltimore county court, a description in writing under their hands and seals, specifying any alteration in the location of the said district, and also the place of holding the election in said ninth district in future; and the said clerk shall record the same in the records of the county, and at the place so specified, all elections for said district shall in future be held.

Time of meeting—compensation.

2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners appointed by virtue of this act, shall meet at the present place of holding the elec-
