

Upon Request of the Lower House the Fine is remitted upon the rfd Thomas Mills

Then was presented the Petition of Samuel Chew which was referred to the Lower House their Consideration

Then was read an Act for reviving certain Laws within this Province to which the Upper House Assented

The House Adjourns till nine of the Clock on Monday Morning Monday the 29th April.

Present all except Mr Bateman

Then was read the Act for limiting Times of Servants returned from the Lower House with the Amendments inserted & was in the last Clause concerning the Sherriffs amended again & referred to further Consideration

Then was read the Act for the height of Sences returned from the Lower house with their Assent & Amendments thereunto made

Then was read the Act for Military Discipline sent from the Lower house with their Assent unto it & Exceptions thereto made by the Upperhouse preferred to further Consideration

Then was read an Act for Post Dutys touching Masters of Ships & was amended & referred to further Consideration

Then was read an Act for maintenance for ministers referred till to Morrow Morning.

Then was read an Act explaining that part of the Act for the Secretary's fees for searching the Records which was referred till the next day

Then was read the Petition of Nicholas Guyther which was referred to the Lower House.

The Upper House Adjourns till nine of the Clock to Morrow Morning

Tuesday the 30th of April

Present The Governour

Robert Clark

Edward Lloyd

The Secretary

Baker Brookes

John Bateman Esq

The Upper House sent the Secretary to the Lower House for a Conference

At a Conference

Then was read the Acts for appointment of certain Officers which was passed with the Amendments.

Then was read the Acts for the height of Sences, military disciplines & the Act explaining that part of the Act for the Secretary's fees for searching the Records, which passed with the Amendments, & voted by the house to be engrossed immediately

Then was read the Act for repeal of the Act for Customs as also the Act for Support of Government annexed to it Mr Bateman dissents to both.