

the Upper House then to be sent to them. after that the Explanation of the Act for Servants Times Which they likewise desired to have fair written & sent to them again

The Act concerning the proceedings of Law after long debate was remitted to Wednesday morning for a further Debate Then was brought an Act for appointing of Sheriffs which was referred till to Morrow morning

The House is adjourned till nine of the Clock to Morrow morning Tuesday the 5th of April

Present as before with Mr Bateman

Then was read the Act concerning the Servants that have Bastards with Amendments, to which the Upper House assented & ordered it to be sent to the Lower house

Then was read an Act for the publication of marriages to which all assent but Mr Bateman & ordered it to be sent to the Lower House

Then was read an Interpretation or Explication of the Act limiting Servants times made the last Assembly Anno 1661 to which the Lower House assented & ordered that it be sent to the Lower house

Then was read an Act for Improvement of Trade
The lower house are desired to signify their opinion in this House at their next Conference

Voted that the former Act last read & passed this House be sent to the Lower house

Then came from the Lower House the following Paper It is voted in this House necessary that some House be built or purchased to keep Courts in or Assembly for the Benefit of the Country Which this House presents to the Upper House requesting them to join with this House in considering of the Place where & the manner how such House shall be built or purchased

W^m Bretton Secy.

Whereupon the Upper house took into Consideration The place for the seating of the Madhouse

Mr Meale. Upon my Lords Mannour Provided there be an House for the Governour & Council otherwise at St. Marys.

Mr Clark. For St. Marys.

Mr Bateman. At St. Marys unless they build an House for the Governour