

House, so soon as the Lower House will

The House adjourned till one of the Clock after Dinner

And the House met again, being all Present as before except Mr. Innesman & the Chancellor

And according to the former Order Col. Wm. Evans went to the Lower House & carryed the heads of the Indians Speech with the Order of this House upon it, who returned again & said that the Lower House would send them an answer by a messenger immediately

Then came a member from the Lower House who did declare to his Lordship that the time by the order aforementioned which Col. Wm. Evans did carry to the Lower House was expired & therefore did desire that his Lordship would be pleased to give them longer time to consider concerning the Indian Conference than was expressed in that said Order which was accordingly granted by his Lordship & the House appointed to morrow morning ten of the Clock against which time notice was given to the said Interpreter to attend

Then came a Member from the Lower House to desire the meaning of two Clauses in the heads of the Indians Speech which was sent accordingly to them and are as followeth viz.

Death, or Injury; was that they did desire that as the English have Laws written which they understand so upon the agreement now to be made they do desire that they may have a stick or some such thing marked with a black Character which they may show to their people & tell them that that signifies that there is a Law made by agreement that whosoever from henceforth shall kill a man shall dye for it & so for other agreements either with red or white Character

As to the man alledged to be killed they intended the man killed at the head of Port Tobo Creek upon Col. Fowkes' Land about a week after the murder of Mr. Langworth's Children for which they formerly desired one hundred & twenty arms length of Roanoke Satisfaction protesting withall that they will not accept of any thing hereafter for the life of a man out the life of him that killed him according to an agreement now to be confirmed by a Law of this Assembly

Memorandum. Then came Mr. Collett the Attorney of Sh. by & acknowledged the sale of 1300 Acres of Land unto Christopher Birkhead & his Heirs for ever & taken & acknowledged before the Court collour 12th April 1666.

Friday 13th April 1666

The House met again Present all as yesterday &

Adjourned till after dinner

The House then met again

Present as before except the, ver. our