

from suffering their servants to keep or raise any Hogs to their proper use, and the Act against Hogs stealers

Then was taken into Consideration the Act prohibiting Exportation of all Hides & skins dressed or undressed in part or whole, except Beaver skins Otter skins & all other sorts of furs & underneath which was writt This House doth judge this Act as yet inconvenient till such time as there be sufficient number of Tanners Curriers & Shoemakers to tann & work up the Hides of the Province & would by consequence keep many hundreds of shoes from being imported; sent again to the Lower House. Then was taken into Consideration the Act prohibiting foreign Ingrossers underneath which was writt, The Upper House do judge that this Act may cause a Contest between the Colony of Virginia & us about purchasing Goods in Potomack River from Ships riding on either side having hitherto indifferently traded for supplying our respective Necessities besides that it can never will be proved that the very individual Goods bought from any Master are the same he now sells at excessive Rates

Was read the Act for recording the Journal of the Lower house & assented to by that House & voted to pass

Was read an Act prohibiting Trade with Indians for any flesh Dead or alive except Deer & Wild Towl & assented to by the Lower House & voted to pass

Was read an Act for making Highways &c & assented to by the Lower House & voted to pass.

Was read an Act concerning Outlawry & assented to by the Lower House & voted to pass

Was read an Act for appointing Coroners in each County & assented to by the Lower House & voted to pass

Upon the Petition of Robert Locke for Eleven Weeks time expended in the Indian March, the Upper House have thought fit that the Petitioner's Satisfaction be paid out of the County of St. Mary & that the Comm<sup>rs</sup> of the said County take care therein Ordered that the Petition be sent to the Lower house for their concurrence therein, and the Lower House returned answer that they do concur as is desired. M<sup>r</sup>. Bretton Clk.

Then was taken into Consideration the message of the Lower house concerning the petitions of diverse inhabitants for a passage of shoes & boat hire pressed for the County's use, & upon reading thereof the Upper house have concurred with the Lower House in the same. John Jeddings Clk.

Upon the Speakers motions to the Lower House concerning provisions in surveying of Land, Ordered by the Upper house that a Bill be drawn to oblige Surveyours to mark lands reserved for the use of the