

1669

(1669)

At two of the Clock the House met again Present as before

The Governour absent

Then came a member from the Lower House & said that the Lower House was ready to come to the Conference when the Upper House pleased who returned answer they should be ready within half a quarter of an hour

Then came the Lower House, a Conference held upon all the Laws.

6th May

Came this paper from the Lower House relating & adjured to the supplemental Act et viz. Resolved upon the question that this house cannot consent to the Engrossment of this Bill without these Amendments viz. The title to be altered as in this paper 5th paragraph in the paper to stand as it is there, & as to the 7th the sense of this house is that it be that no person in this Province shall by this or any other act be forced to invade any Enemy out of the Province, which being accordingly amended in the Bill this House will agree the same do pass to Engrossment in all other things this House doth agree

Signed by order Rob. Carville Clerk

In answer to which the Upper House will consent to the Alteration of the Title of that Act & the first Amendment Pro: vided they will put into the said Act this following Proviso viz. Provided always that neither this Act nor any thing therein contained shall not repeal, infringe, or invalidate nor be at any time construed to infringe, repeal, or invalidate the Act entitled an Act Concerning Levying War in this Province made by Cap^t: William Stone Anno 1649 and Confirmed by his Lordship's Declaration dated 26th August 1650 nor any thing therein contained any thing in this Act to the Contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Then was sent to the Lower House this Proviso agreed upon at the Conference of both Houses to the Act for Encouragement of such Persons as will undertake to build Watermills (viz) instead of the words (Exercise power) Provided always that no person or persons intending to build a Watermill as afd. shall have liberty to sue out any such Writ or Writs as afd. nor have such Grant or Grants of Lands to build a Watermill upon as afd. unless such Person or Persons sue out such Writs as afd. before the 6th day of May which shall be in the Year of our Lord 1672 anything in this Act to the Contrary notwithstanding

Then was read the second time the Act by omitting the words of Attachments and providing what shall be Levied