

said Proceedings to the Upper House or whither his Excellency & the Upper house please to transmitt what is necessary to be done in that affair to this House

Signed by order Rob^l. Ridgley Clk.

Read in this house an Act Entituled an Act concerning the impanelling the Grand Inquests in the several Counties within this Province. Passed & voted to be read the second time

Baker Brookes Esq sent with the following Request

upon the debate of the message sent from the Lower house to this house touching the regulation of Proceedings in Chancery It is Resolved that the Lower House be requested to propound some certain Rules for the regulation of the said Proceedings to be Considered of by this House

Signed by order Rich^d. Boughton Clk.

Mr. Taylor sent by this House with the following Vote

Voted that those who shall be found wilfully to burn fences shall be lyable to the same penalty as the wilful Burners of Houses & that this Vote be sent to the Committee appointed for drawing up the List of Laws for Proceedings in Criminal Cases

Signed by order Rich^d. Boughton Clk.

On which Vote was Endorwed an answer as followeth & sent by Mr. Stambleton & Mr. Bishop viz. This House doth Concur with the Vote of the Upper house within mentioned & that the Vote be sent to the Committee as is within directed

Signed by order Rob^l. Ridgley Clk.

Mr. Truman Sent with the following Vote of this house

Voted that Hogsstealing be adjudged Felony & the first offence only to be allowed Benefit of the Clergy, & the second offence to be Felony without Clergy

Signed by order Rich^d. Boughton Clk.

The Concurrence with which Vote was sent from the Lower House by Major Brooke & Mr. Darnall in the words following viz. This House do Concur with the Upper House & do desire that the Committee of both Houses may draw up a Law for that purpose

Signed by order Rob^l. Ridgley Clk.