A Member of this house Proposeth that whereas the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary hath lived long amongst us and from time to time done us many Particular and Signall favours whilst only his Fathers Lieutenant General of this Province and since his Death he being Lord Proprietary of this Province now his Lordship hath continued his Wonted favours and kindnesses to us and in this very assembly by many Gracious Condescensions hath witnessed..... the continuance of his favour to us, since that his Lordships most Important Affairs now Speedily calls him for England yet his Lordship hath been Pleased to Declare his Speedy Intentions of coming in again and for that his Lordships Voyage cannot Chuse but be very Chargeable to him and that his Lordship may know we are heartily sensible of all his noble favours and gratefully accept them Whether it is not Necesary that we present as a Token of our Duty, Love Fidelity and true Respects to his Lordship all such Tobaccos as are now remaining of the Countries in his Lords hands yea or noe Voted by this house Nemine contradicente that the same Tobaccos of the Countries and now remaining in his Lordships hands be by this house Presented to his Lordship according to the within Proposall and this house humbly Desire his Lordships Acceptance thereof as a Token of their undesigned Love Affection and Duty to him and Desire the Concurrence of the Upper house
