Lower house of Assembly 8th May 1682

This house after Long and Serious Debate about the Indian Affair recommended by his Lordship to the Consideration of this house at the opening of this present Sessions of Assembly Do humbly advise his Lordship Viz^t

1. That his Lordship appoint one member out of each house as Agents for this Province to go to the Government of New York, and there to treat with make and confirm a League of Peace and Amity with all the Northern Indians if Possible, and that in their treaty with the said Indians they endeavour to put an end to the War between the said Northern Indians and the Piscattaway Indians, and make peace for or between them, and the several Nations on the Eastern and Western Shores —

2. That peace and amity be continued between us and all our Neighbouring Indians, and a fair and accustomed Correspondence held with them, in Order to which that his Lordship supply them ^{with} of the publick Magazine with Powder and Shot against their Indian Enemies untill the return of the aforesaid Agents from New York aforesaid —

3. That in case the Northern Indians make any inroad or Invasion
