

To this Province without any further or other Addition, and did receive ten Shillings a sufficient fee for entering or clearing any Ship or Vessel, and as for the Kings Officers they knew not what fee was due to them upon that Account neither did they concern themselves therewith —

Mr. Carville and Mr. Rowby having thus Delivered their Message return to their house —

The Opinion or Answer of this house to the Lower houses Advice to his Lordship in relation to the Indian Affair sent by Captain Digges to the Lower house, he hath in Charge also to know of that house whether they will permit the Attorneys to come and Argue the Errors in this house Depending all of them throughout or not —

Cap. Digges returns from the Lower house & reports that they will send an Answer —

Mr. Robert Carville and Mr. Henelm Cheselayne sent from the Lower house to tell this house know that their house had sent them as Attorneys concerned in the Errors Depending now to Argue the same Provided they may be — Dispatched this Day for no longer may they be spared by their house —

In answer to which this house return that they cannot Possibly — Dispatch all this Day and are willing to go through with what they can if it might be convenient but do thinke they cannot Determine above two and then the parties concerned in the rest unheard will Complain of which they are desired to acquaint their house — They go accordingly and return with answer that this Day and no longer their house will spare them —

Put to the Vote in this house whether this house shall proceed to the hearing of some of the Errors unless they can hear them all or not?

The just Cause of Complaint that those Persons will have that cannot come to a hearing as well as the rest, and the Obstruction of hearing of any will be to the Publick Business Considered it is Voted in the Negative that this house will not hear any, and this house will accordingly Advise the Lower house by a Member of this house —

Mr. Carville and Mr. Cheselayne return to their house.

Mr. Smith from the Lower house he is to acquaint this House that their house is now setting out a Committee for Accounts that some Member of this house (if this house think fitt) may be Appointed to Join with them: He returns to the Lower house —

The Honourable the Secretary sent to the Lower house to let that House know that unless they will spare the Attorneys Members of their house concerned in the Errors Depending in this house to come and Argue the same fully all of them be the time two or three days or longer this house are resolved to hear none at all this Session — The Secretary returns Ordered to be read the Act for Revising certain Laws &c. —
