

are intended against him. Whereas we they know the very truth of those papers intended in any way and means to be rightly informed, he is well assured himself that he would have been glad to have charged them therewith, but the integrity of his own heart and conscience being the most able and impartial witness, and transferring him of the least thought of doing any evil or mischief to his Majesty or the good People of this Province, as he said his spirits again to make his trust of justice before his Majesty and your Honours of whose Wisdom Justice and Honour he is so well assured that he acts with confidence and yet with all humbleness submit himself to your Examination and Judgment, and the said Jacob Young being so humbly he is well content of not being prejudiced by any words or words of form in his answer but that he may be admitted to make further explanation and proof as here shall be desired doth make these several and several answers following in the same Order they are laid down unto him The said Jacob Young utterly denyeth that he ever alienated or at any time alienated or alienate his infection from the said Proprietary..... of this Province and his government and doth utterly deny he ever contracted Marriage with a Native Indian Woman of the Susquehanna Nation, and doth utterly deny he ever had a Native Indian in any such Susquehanna Wife, nor never when any were married in the said Susquehanna Nation or any other Indian Nation whatsoever against his Majesty's Subjects the good People of this Province

That the said Jacob Young in the Year 1675 did not live and inhabit in this County nor in any Place within this Province, but did then live & inhabit in Delaware untill August 1676 about which time the said Jacob Young was a writing Dated the 14th Aug: 1676 in these Words full. Suffe the bearer hereof Jacob Young the Interpreter together with the Ambassadors of the Susquehanna Nation to pass freely a l' Affaires in this Province of Maryland, and from thence safely to return to their own Country and subscribed by his Honour the Chancellor with other papers written to the same purpose here ready to be produced of the same Date, that the said Young 29th November 1676 signed one other writing under the hand of his Honour the Chancellor in these Words, Jacob Young I have received your order the 16th Instant and have communicated it to the good and faithful and by their Command I have with send you a third safe Conduct for yourself and the Susquehanna Indians to continue for four Months least the hard Weather might hinder you or them from coming Down sooner, and for us and them to send together to one Weather without effectually treating which way Broad Seal is on their part & in which letter is likewise inserted that the said Young is to persuade them to stay within the Bounds of the Province, and that he would persuade the Susquehanna Indians that were gone to the Delaware to return & as by the said Letter here ready to be produced it doth more largely appear that the said Young received two Commissions to the same effect about the same time here ready to be produced; Pursuant to which Orders Letters and Commissions the said Young with great Hazard of his life sought out the said Susquehanna Indians and found them; thinking therein he had served the said Proprietary
