

The message this following Message sent to the Lower house by M^r Secretary Sewall Upper house 11th October 1683

This house have appointed to Morrow Afternoon between one and two of the Clock for Conference with the Lower house concerning the Bill for Vesting of Burgesses Signed G. Order Tho. Gurnwin C^o of Assembly

Voted in this house that Col^l Dove M^r Secretary Sewall and Major Suman be the persons more especially designed for the Managing the Conference

The house adjourned till to Morrow Morning 9 a Clock

Friday 12th October 1683 the house met again

Present

The honourable	{	Col ^l Henry Courson	}	Col ^l William Burges
		Col ^l Vincent Love		M ^r Secretary Sewall
		Col ^l Henry Darnall		M ^r Secretary Darnall
		Col ^l William Stevens		Major Thomas Suman
		Col ^l William Digges

The Bill against Embezzling his Lordships Ammunition and Ordinance read the second and third time, and putt to the Question whether the same should pass as it is or with Amendments. Voted with Amendments

M^r Attorney General and M^r Justice with the Town Bill and with this Message Lower house 12th October 1683

This house have sent the Bill for Advancement of Trade, so far as it is printed and thereby to show the intent of this house in Nominating such severall Commissioners as for each County

Francis G. Orde C^o of the Lower house

M^r Hutton and Captain Suman from the Lower house with a Bill for providing in case of Sudden Accidents in this Government

The Bill against Embezzling his Lordships Ammunition and Ordinance read as drawn by this house, and then putt to the Question whether the same should pass as drawn in his house or that which came from the Lower. Voted that the Bill pass as sent up by the Lower house - and after paper and Signed the same sent down to the Lower house by Major Suman

The Bill providing against Sudden Accidents in the Government read the first, second and third time, and paper and sent down to the Lower house by Col^l Stevens

M^r Robert Justice from the Lower house for the Statutes at large the same given to him and to others

The house adjourned till after Dinner

Then met again

Col^l Dove goes down to the Lower house with the Bill for Advancement of Trade with order to tell the Lower house, that this house have no Objection against the Commissioners named by the Lower house; he returns and says he had Deliver'd the Message

M^r Justice from the Lower house to know if this house is ready for the Conference, and was answered that this house will give them Notice when they