Col Pye goes to the Lower house with this Message
Upper house of Assembly 30th Novemb 1688

Herewith is returned the Act for Advancement of Coins being wholly Deficient and against which there can be no greater Offender than the Act it self for by this Act this Act is Destroyed It being vain to think that ever money will be brought into this Country till it be made Currant and it will never be Currant whilst any be accepted from receiving it at its Currant and enhanced Value; Besides there is no provision made to prevent Abuses and frauds by light and light Money Wherefore this house desire the Lower house to resume the further Consideration of this Act

Signed by Order Tho: Grunwin C of Assembly -

Col Pye returns and says he has delivered the said Message
