

I am glad to hear that you are well & hope you will continue to be so. I have not much news to write at present. The weather is very warm here now, but I expect it will soon change. I have been thinking much lately of the state of the country and the prospects of the future. It seems to me that we are in a very critical position and that it is necessary for us to take prompt and decisive action. I am sure that you will agree with me in this opinion. I have been reading much of the late Mr. [Name] and his views on the subject. He was a very able and thoughtful man and his opinions are well worth considering. I have also been thinking of the late Mr. [Name] and his views on the subject. He was a very able and thoughtful man and his opinions are well worth considering.
