

Ordered he did so, the Informant (to the best of his Remembrance) called him Impious fellow, or such like Term, and Commanded him out of the Room; The Day following the Court being over, the Informant having some Business, and coming to the Court he saw a great Deal of Uxhalls coming out of the Court house, and carrying into the field, and meeting with Mr. Salter the Man of the house, he asked the Informant, if would not go to Dinner with them, The Informant asked him with whom so the said Salter told him of the whole Gang, but hearing by Mr. Griffith Jones, and the said Mr.
 Salter what Mad pranks they had played the night before, The Informant refused and did not go among them, for he was told they had been drinking all night, some of them had ridd their horses into the Court house, some in their frolics had put themselves into the Pillory and there they Drank that Day at the Point they were so drunk that they fell together by the ears; and Michael Earle flung Joseph Green in the Water and Sillingstone fell to cursing Michael Earle &c. And in their frolics they would give a Name to their place of Meeting, and Sillingstone he said it should be called the Concoction: but others said so, that would be too broad; It should be called Lambeth Hall, the aforesaid Company continued in their frolics for the space of five Days or thereabouts. —

William Finney

Ordered that Col. George Robotham Call before him the aforesaid John Sillingstone & others the persons in the foregoing Information Mentioned, and take Bond with good Security for each of them to appear at the next Provincial Court to answer what shall be Alleged against them on their Majestys Behalfts; and for their good Behaviour in the mean time, and that John Salter Mr. Finney and Mr. Griffith Jones be Summoned as Witnesses against them.

Memorandum, as to what words was Spoken by Mr. Francis Perkins Merchant of London on the 28th Day of April 1692 at London Town in Ann Arundell County in the hearing of us whose Names are underwritten Vizt. The said Perkins said that he was on Board Captain Browns Ships in Plymouth when Captain God came on Board the said Ship, and the said God enquired of the said Brown for one Benjamin Ricard who he expected to find there bound for Maryland, but the said Brown did tell him that no such person was there; Whereupon the said Captain God desired the said Brown to permitt him a passage on Board the Ship Bayley, Mr. Peregrine Browns Ship riding in the same Harbour, and the said God going on Board the said Ship with Captain John Brown where the said God met with the said Benjamin Ricard, and there delivered unto him a Packet of Letters directed to this Province of Maryland, for their Majestys Service; but after the two Browns Ships were out at Sea, and Col. Coursey & Captain Huson Passengers in the said Peregrine Browns Ship & Mr. Sillingstone and Mr.
 Singan Passengers in John Browns Ship, they made many Visits some times on Board one Ship and the other; Coursey, Huson, Sillingstone, Singan with Mr.
 Peregrine Brown and some others in the said Ship did all agree and Purpose to make a private Search in the said Ship to find out the said Packet of Letters and if they could by any ways find them out was all agreed to break them open and see the Contents what was in them but could not tell whether the
