M<sup>r</sup> William Josephs petition for allowance for a House & some things taken from him upon the late Revolution retulst himself was set at W<sup>m</sup> Malapary as also for January 30 Copies of his pro- posalls to the House of Assembly the last Sections of Assembly under the late Government at request of that lower House

Answer to the said petition thus subscribed

By his Excellency the Governor and Council in Assembly
May 31 1692

As to the House it appears to this Board that upon former applic- cation to the Government had an Order Granted him for Reditution thereof which this Board think reasonable should be renewed, the late taken in Hostility or Surrender upon articles cannot be forced to be re- turned neither is it known to this Board where or in whose Custody they are and as for the proposalls made by the petitioner and the sever- al Copies thereof the House if they have employed the petitioner may consider of making Satisfaction for the same as they shall think fit

J. Luwelling the

John Wincoll petition preferred to this Board as follows

To his Excellency the Governor and his Honourable Council

The humble petition of John Wincoll

Most humbly sheweth

That your petitioner hath well and faithfully behaved himself with all duty and Submission to this present Government and shall still persevere in so doing as becomes a Loyal Subject and Good protestant that he is at present out of Employment but most ready and willing to Embrace any Opportunity of getting an honest Livelihood and being informed that the Cryer place of the Provin- cial Court is not yet settled upon any particular Person since your Excellency's arrival

Your Petitioner humbly offers himself to your Honours Consi- deration and prays that he may stand for in your Honours favour so as to have conferred on him the said Office which he shall endeavour to Execute with all faith and diligence to the best of his Skill and Power

And as in duty bound he shall pray &c

The petition Granted and the petitioner nominated and appointed by his Excellency the Governor Cryer of the Provincial Court
