

Majestys. Jurisdiction County Court will answer the Premises and to receive such County Punishment as so full as we may. And by desire and your Petitioners Wife required to return to your Petitioner and live with him as to cometh his wife or be otherwise disposed of at a greater distance from the sight and knowledge of your Petitioner

And shall pay £ ^{the} 1692

By his Excellency the Governour and Council June the 6 1692 Ordered that the Sheriff of Dorset County forthwith to apprehend and take into custody the Bodies of Daniel Clarke and Katherine Cook the wife of Mr Edward Cook of the same County / with whom he the said / Philip Clarke doth incontinently live in Adultery and detains her from going to and cohabiting with her, so that he have them both before this Board with all Expedition to answer the Premises and the further Complaint of the said Edward Cook whereof let there be no fail at peult

To the Sheriff of Dorset County or his Deputy These Signed by Order of Hewellin Esq

Adjourn till to Morrow 10 a Clock June the 7 1692

Met in Council Chamber His Excellency the Governour

the honble } Col^o Jones Mr Tench } Present } Col^o Greenberry Captain Addison } Col^o Mutchers Captain Counts }

Mr William Fayard appointed Clerk Assistant Col^o Brown and Mr Bush make their appearance at the Board proceed to reading several Bills before the Board viz An Act for Settlement of an Annual Revenue upon the Majestys Governour &c (remark) this Board upon reading finding that the Revenue is only for the time being think it most proper that the same be as well for their Majestys Governour hereafter as for the present Governour for the time being An Act prohibiting Trade with the Indians for any Fresh dead or live accept deer and wild fowl

An Act for enrollment of Conveyances and securing the Estates of Purchasers. read & passed

An Act for advancement of Coins read and passed

The Speaker and other the members of the House attended his Excellency and this Board to confer about the laws passed this Session to restrict