

May the 9 1696 (1696)

Several Propositions from his Excellency to the House of Burgesses debated and Resolved upon as followeth

As to the State House

That there be no Chimney in it

That Col<sup>d</sup> Hauman build a back Porch to be allowed for when for need

That a letter be writ to Sir Neal

Invitation to Exportation of Pork and Corn

That Corn only be prohibited to be Exported

What to be done with the bills taken for the Imposition on furs they are to be delivered to the Treasurers who are to send them home this Shipping and take Care to have them received and securely lodged for the end they are designed

The Quaker part of the Revenue due from Governor Oglethorpe's Estate

And likewise to be sent to his Majesty

Relating to Skins and furs exported

That the law is sufficient and will oblige those that have exported any to pay the duty

As to the Proposition relating to Budewell

The House of Burgesses

Suspected Person carrying good Horses over Potomack

The law has already provided

Penalties &c to Virginia

Resolved Propositions to be made to that Colony for Remedy thereof

Pennsylvania Trade and Seamen Travelling without Papers

The several Magistrates are to see his Excellency's Proclamation duly Performed

Testimonials to come out of the Plantation Office

The law has already provided therefore

Laying the publick Levy

Resolved that if the Assembly do not do the same they will Provide therefore

As to Priests marrying Protestants to Papists

Resolved that the Romish Priests complying with the laws of this Province be Tolerated to marry persons applying themselves to them therefore

Relating to the Election of Burgesses

That the law has sufficiently provided therefore

Resolved Mr Conry be desired to hunt his Sermon