

The first of these is the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary amount of money to carry on its operations and that it has been obliged to resort to the sale of its bonds and to the issue of new paper money. The second is the fact that the Government has been unable to pay its debts and that it has been obliged to suspend the payment of its interest. The third is the fact that the Government has been unable to pay its taxes and
 that it has been obliged to
 suspend the payment of its taxes. The fourth is the fact that the Government has been unable to pay its salaries and that it has been obliged to
 suspend the payment of its salaries. The fifth is the fact that the Government has been unable to pay its pensions and that it has been obliged to
 suspend the payment of its pensions. The sixth is the fact that the Government has been unable to pay its interest on its bonds and that it has been obliged to suspend the payment of its interest. The seventh is the fact that the Government has been unable to pay its interest on its new paper money
 and that it has been obliged to
 suspend the payment of its interest. The eighth is the fact that the Government has been
 unable to pay its interest on
 its new paper money and that it has been obliged to suspend the payment of its interest.

P.

The Government has been unable to pay its interest on its bonds and that it has been obliged to suspend the payment of its interest. The ninth is
 the fact that the Government
 has been unable to pay its
 interest on its new paper money
 and that it has been obliged to
 suspend the payment of its interest. The tenth is the fact that the Government has been
 unable to pay its interest on
 its new paper money and that
 it has been obliged to suspend
 the payment of its interest.