

unless the same be put in due execution which hitherto seemed to be much neglected by the Magistrates whereby such an overflowing of excesses were recommended and gave strict charge to such members of the House as were Magistrates or were Rule within any of the Places for which they were Chosen that they should take care to see all the Laws put in strict prosecution especially those against Drunkenness & Bla-phemy & profane Swearing fornication Adultery &c. lastly That he had considered with his Majesty's honorable Council of Proroguing the Assembly until the 28 day of March next but hoped there might be occasion of calling them together so soon which if there were not that then they should have notice thereof by Proclamation & Assembly was accordingly prorogued until the 28th day of March next

So Ended this Sessions of Assembly