

to be in order now here the said Indians should be sent to W. Speaker acquaints his Excellency that the House has considered of the matter and they are to leave it wholly to his Excellency and thought it necessary that his Excellency should send Androff his Majesty's Governor of Carolina to write to the said Indians to give leave for some persons from hence to go to the said Indians which they may do if they please by English and that they may be sent to the said Indians on such condition as they do advise not to break out the said Indians upon such condition as his Excellency says he must put the Country in the charge of his Excellency if he should send them out. Therefore they thought it best to leave that Androff may break up and upon Mr Speaker's motion to his Excellency that he should give a good answer in that case of the Indians not to be sent

The House being adjourned it was said that if they will not come back he must take them to the House to be imprisoned

The House being adjourned and the members departed to the House of Lords and there being from the Council to Sir Thomas Lawrence Secretary of the House of the 23rd instant for his attending the House in Friday next to be satisfied how his Honour and Mr C. Clerk of the House of Commons should demand the full fees of the House of Commons the Secretary is pleased to demand of the Board whether they will be content to pay the said fees without his command. However he may say they will not and the said Sir Thomas intended to be sent to the House being adjourned to be sent to the Board

The House being adjourned it was said that the right way Inconvenient and dangerous

The House being adjourned it was said that his Excellency is pleased to say that he is very glad to see the House of Commons to be kept in an ordinary to the great Honour of our Nation and that he is very glad that the House of Commons is in a manner of the House which he hopes will for the good of our Nation be kept in the same manner as the House of Commons is not like the same

The House being adjourned it was said that the House of Commons is not like the same

The House being adjourned it was said that the House of Commons is not like the same

The House being adjourned it was said that the House of Commons is not like the same

The House being adjourned it was said that the House of Commons is not like the same